

You charge your patients for the services you perform. Nothing more.
Why should your professional liability insurance be any different?

Dentist's Advantage introduces "Practice-Based Pricing." Pricing based on the services you perform. It's that simple.

This revolutionary yet logical approach allows you to view your professional liability premium as you do your practice.

"Practice-Based Pricing" reviews your overall practice and assesses the scope of services you provide. You pay based on this assessment. The pricing reflects the scope of services provided by your practice.

Dentist's Advantage is the first to offer this innovative approach to your malpractice coverage. It puts you in control of your professional liability insurance premium.

Considering expanding your scope of services? Check with us to see the impact to your current premium, if any. You can now assess how well this expanded service fits into your practice.

Compare the price of your current professional liability insurance coverage to Dentist's Advantage "Practice-Based Pricing." Pay only for the services you perform.
